SUMMARY

The Territory Sales Representative is responsible for executing sales to selected accounts in commercial baking, food manufacturing, and Grain-based food ingredient distribution segments.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Product and ingredient solutions in grain-based foods are key focus areas in Bay State Milling's business strategy. These custom solutions have broad potential from flour to blended product applications in food processing and commercial baking segments. The Company has built a strong position in health and wellness segments leveraging a foundation of flour milling that make it a leader in conventional, multi grain, organic and whole wheat products. In addition to being able to provide naturally good ingredients the company has the capability to fortify and build a wide variety of custom products through its blending capabilities. Blended products can improve nutrition, create flavor, drive efficiency and consistency, and improve execution for our customers. Essential duties and responsibilities for this position include:

1. Key areas of responsibility:
 - a. Sell flour and branded products to selected regional customers.
 - b. Deepen customer relationships and strengthen Bay State Milling's geographic presence and market penetration with commercial baking, food manufacturing, and bakery/food service distribution segments.
2. Manage the contribution margin on customer sales which includes:
 - a. Assist in customer sales strategy development.
 - b. Budgeting & forecasting
 - c. Pricing responsibility and accountability
 - d. Formal customer relationship management
 - e. Monitor, and communicate customer business performance.
3. Collaborate cross-functionally with Management, Sales & Marketing, R&D, Operations, QA, Transportation, and the Financial job families to create enterprise customer awareness and deliver relevant, timely, and profitable customer solutions that create and optimize value.
